Tickenhurst House is perfect for celebrations. It is very popular with large families wanting to get together or old friends making time to catch up over a few days.

There is a wonderful homely feel as you enter the farmhouse kitchen that is fully equipped for feasts and fine dining. The dining room is adjoining and has a long banqueting table. The heart of the house is the sitting-room; there is a wonderful wood burner in the old fireplace with a beautiful oak framed mantelpiece above.

The furnishings are of high quality with three enormous sofas for everyone to sink into and relax. The second sitting-room is more intimate and provides yet further space for book fanatics.

The bedrooms are light and airy. All beds are large and comfortable with top quality bed linen. The master bedrooms are both en suite. Tickenhurst house sits in farm acreage of The Knowlton Estate. Our clients enjoy the peace of this country property.
